SUBJECT: Review of Proposed Citizen Advisory Group (CAG) Bylaws Updates

RECOMMENDATION

That the Community Relations Commission reviews the proposed updates to the CAG Bylaws and recommend approval.

DISCUSSION

On June 21, 2022, Resolution No. 15,589 established uniform bylaws for the following Citizen Advisory Groups (CAGs): Community Relations Commission, Cultural Arts Commission, Commission on Homelessness, Library Board, Parks, Recreation, and Community Services Commission, and Senior Services Commission. These bylaws standardized administrative processes for all CAGs, providing additional clarity for staff and volunteers. The City Council approved minor changes to these bylaws on December 19, 2023, which set a deadline for CAGs to elect officers, set a timeframe for when a quorum must be met to hold a meeting, and established the rules of order to be Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised.

On May 20, 2025, the City Council approved changes to the Library Board to align its structure with the California Education Code. These changes primarily impacted its membership structure. As a result, the Library Board is required to establish its own set of bylaws, and the current CAG bylaws must be amended to reflect these changes.

The proposed updated bylaws include some administrative clean-up and formatting changes, as well as the following items:

- Removal of the Library Board
- Definition of CAG membership requirements
 - This was previously only listed in the City's administrative manual
- Modifications to the required number of meetings per year, now requiring at least four (4) per year (currently requires monthly meetings)
 - This is intended to provide flexibility to CAGs and volunteer time is respected by only holding meetings when there is business to discuss or action to take.
- Additional special meeting circumstance permitting CAGs to hold additional meetings should it be necessary
- Requires a bylaws review every two years (currently every year)
 - This is considered a standard timeframe for reviewing bylaws.

These recommendations were presented to three (3) CAG chairs in June 2025 at a chair training.

City staff will be presenting these bylaws to City Council for approval on September 16, 2025 and request CAG support.
