The City Attorney announced that the City Council by unanimous vote has directed the City Attorney to file or join in filing of an amicus brief to be filed in four matters. First matter, King County versus Turner, which challenges the executive's conditioning of congressionally appropriated grants, including funds meant to serve unhoused people and provide critical transit services on plaintiff's compliance with executive orders pertaining to immigration, transgender rights, and diversity, equity and inclusion programs. Second matter, Santa Clara County versus Noem, which challenges conditions placed on federal disaster preparedness grants which conditions the plaintiffs argue require abandoning diversity initiatives and cooperating with federal immigration policies exceed the executive's authority and are unconstitutional attempts to force the executive's unrelated political agenda onto local governments. Third matter, State of Illinois versus. Noem regarding the conditioning of federal emergency funding on state's cooperation with federal immigration enforcement and the arbitrary withdrawal of hundred of millions of dollars in funds from so-called sanctuary jurisdictions. The fourth matter, Newsom versus Trump, regarding the deferral deployment of the California National Guard to protect federal property and immigration officials from protesters in Los Angeles and the surrounding area.
